

“PLEASE DON’T SEND ME TO GUANTÁNAMO.”

Charlotte Muschg
Berne, Switzerland

“If a little old lady in Switzerland gave money to a charity. . . and the money was passed to al Qaeda, could she be held as an enemy combatant ?”

“She could. Someone’s intention is clearly not a factor that would disable detention.”

Dep. Assoc. Attorney General Brian Boyle, testifying in a December 1, 2004 hearing before Judge Joyce Hens Green

Under current law, the U.S. Department of Defense can declare non-U.S. citizens anywhere in the world “enemy combatants” and detain them for the remainder of their natural lives without ever charging them with a crime, even if they never knowingly supported terrorist activities.

The Military Commissions Act: It’s just bad law.
